

Data Protection Statement

1. This is the personal data protection statement of Asian Lift Pte Ltd (hereinafter “Asian Lift”).
2. Asian Lift respects the rights you have under relevant data protection law. Asian Lift collects, uses and discloses personal data for purposes as notified to you or as permitted by law. This statement may be modified from time to time.
3. If you have any enquiries, comments or suggestions about how Asian Lift collects, uses or discloses your personal data or about this statement, please contact our Data Protection Officer by email at pdp@smiit.com.
4. If you would like to receive information about your personal data which Asian Lift retains, to update such personal data or to withdraw any consent given, please contact our Data Protection Officer at the email address above.

Website Statement

Where you submit information through this website or to an email address provided at this website, you will be regarded as having agreed and consented to the collection, use and disclosure of all such information in the manner described in this Website Statement.

Information you have submitted will be used and disclosed generally only for the purpose requested, for example to periodically send you emails on the release of press releases, annual reports, sustainability reports, results, publications or any other information or materials which we think you may find interesting where you have signed up for any of our publications; or where you have sent us a resume or similar information, to consider your suitability for employment or an alternative service arrangement by Asian Lift.

We reserve the right to use and disclose any submitted information to contact you and to comply with law, including disclosing submitted information in response to a request made by any government authority or regulator. You hereby consent to all such use and disclosure of submitted information by Asian Lift and any service provider to Asian Lift, within Singapore or otherwise.

Please be aware that this Website uses cookies to monitor browsing preferences and help analyse data about webpage traffic in order to make website improvements based on customer needs. We generally use such information for statistical analysis but may use it for other reasons in aggregated form or where we are not aware of your identity.

A cookie does not give us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share. Most internet browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser settings according to your preference. If you choose not to accept cookies, you may not be able to experience all of the features of this website.
